

Duration: 1 day

SQL is a key language for manipulating and managing information on a database. This introductory course teaches the delegate how to retrieve information from a MySQL Database.

Key Topics

- What is a database? Understanding what tables are
- Logging with MySQL Workbench and understanding its querying interface
- Introduction to the SELECT Statement
- Learning how to select specific information from a data table
- Understanding basic MySQL data types
- Creating calculations in SQL
- Basic text manipulation in SQL
- Introduction to dates in SQL
- Sorting and grouping data in SQL
- Introduction to relationships. Understanding what joins are
- Selecting information from more than one table
- An introduction to inserting, updating, and deleting information