

Duration: 2 days

Who should attend: Existing project managers seeking PMP® certification in recognition of their skills and experience, and those looking for more advanced knowledge of project management principles.

Aims: In this course, you will be introduced to the advanced knowledge required around project management skills and key initiatives for quality, human resource, communications, risk management, and procurement management. For on-demand learning, you will have access to this course for 12 months from the purchase date.

Learning Objectives:

- Project communications management
- Project human resource management
- Project procurement management
- Project quality management
- Project risk management

Topics

Project Quality Management

- Project quality planning
- Quality assurance and quality control

Project Human Resource Management

- Planning project human resources
- Managing project human resources
- Planning and managing project human resources simulation

Project Communications Management

- Stakeholders and the communications management plan
- Processes for managing project communications
- Communicating effectively with project stakeholders simulation

Project Risk Management

- Risk management planning
- Identifying project risks
- Performing risk analysis
- Risk response, monitor, and control

Project Procurement Management

- Planning project procurement
- Managing procurement