

Duration: half a day

This 3-hour half day course is aimed at a non-technical audience who may be targeted as the victims of spam, viruses, and other harmful contact from malicious activities. After attending the course, the delegates will gain a basic grounding into how and why cybercrime is conducted, and also learn some of the key tools to reduce the chances of becoming a victim in future.

Key Topics

Understanding Cyber Threats

- Hacking
- Social Engineering
- Email Phishing
- Mobile Devices
- Spyware, Ransomware and Malware
- Social Media
- Web Security
- Physical Security

Preventing Cyber Threats

- Secure Passwords
- Two-Factor Authentication
- Securing Mobile Devices
- Browsing Securely
- Limiting Removable Media
- Encryption
- Destroying Sensitive Data
- Physical Security Measures
- Preventing Phishing